LANTERN

Calvary Evangelical Lutheran Church April 2017

From the Pastor

What an amazing Lenten journey this has been this year! On Sundays, we have been truly blessed by our dramatic series, “The People vs. Jesus,” presented during worship. Directed by Tess Snyder, it features our own talented members, who enhance it not only with their acting gifts, but also with their gifts of faith in Christ. As Jesus is “tried” in this courtroom setting, with witnesses from his life called to the stand, we find ourselves journeying with him along the path toward Calvary and the Cross. If you have missed any of this, you have missed out! What a spiritually powerful experience it has been. Join us on Sundays at either service, 8:15 or 10:45, and be fed by God’s Word presented in this unique and creative way.

I have to confess that when I heard that our mid-week Lenten theme was to be a study of Martin Luther’s Small Catechism, I thought . . . oh, goody. In other words, I was not all that enthused. But I’ve found it’s just another lesson in learning to keep an open mind. It has been wonderful! I guess I’ve gotten so used to teaching it to young people that I forgot how powerful it can be when taught on an adult level. Journeying together through Lent with the Small Catechism has turned out to be a real joy for me. And I never realized that for a significant number of our members, this is the first time they have studied it. Some of us studied it as adolescents, but many of us today were not raised in the Lutheran Church, or in another church which used the Small Catechism. Either way, we’re enjoying it!

As we approach Holy Week and Easter, I would encourage you to set those dates aside and to plan to attend Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter morning services. You'll find the schedule elsewhere in this newsletter. As we walk through that week with Jesus, the week for which he was born, and as we watch him suffer and die to save us, we remember his saving work with amazement, humility, and gratitude. Who could ever love us this much?

And we know how the story ends: the Resurrection! Out of tragedy, God brings victory! Whose victory? Ours! Through Christ, we are set free from both sin and death, and promised eternal life with him in his glory!

As we look toward the joy of Easter, let us remember and rejoice together for and with our community of faith, growing together in God's grace.

In Christ's service,

Pastor Janet

Dear Calvary Family,

Thank you for all of the cards and notes for our 70th wedding anniversary and Jim's 90th birthday. It is so good to hear from you! We miss you all so very much. We are doing OK for two 'old folks'. God bless you all!

Jim and Joan May

To Calvary Lutheran Church,

I just wanted to drop you a note to say thank you. You don't know me personally, but I wanted to thank you and your staff for your service, commitment, and love for this community. It is making an impact. Your work is bearing fruit. So thank you! Be encouraged!

You are making a difference. Keep it up!

With Gratitude,
Erika

Dear Calvary Family,

Your loving support continues to bless me and give me strength. All your kindness and help over Stan's years of illness will not be forgotten. Stan's last days were eased by the tender care of Pastor Janet and Kay Northrup, they will stay in my heart forever. The joy of singing and hugs at the memorial service will warm my heart forever. Diane Diekroger continues to encourage me and Julie to keep getting out to walk, helping us to look forward, and often to laugh. And Janis Lane is helping me get back to organizing Calvary archives. Blessings abound! My heart thanks you all. And thank you to those who have given a memorial gift to Calvary in Stan's name. This fund will be used to create a permanent home for the church archives; history being his favorite subject.

'The Religious Tolerance Collection' at OUC Quinn Library continues accept memorial gifts in Stan's name. This was a subject close to his heart and is certainly a concern in our world today. A panel discussion is being planned for this spring.

Contributions can be made to OUC Chillicothe Foundation, OUC Office of Resource Development, Attn. Joyce Atwood, 101 University Drive, Chillicothe, Ohio 45601.

Thoughts on Fasting Submitted by Janis Lane

Fast from hurting words and say kind words. Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude. Fast from anger and be filled with patience. Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope. Fast from worries and have trust in God. Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity. Fast from pressure and be prayerful. Fast from bitterness and fill your hearts with joy. Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others. Fast from grudges and be reconciled. Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.
